

March - Trifold

Non-Fiction-Informational

Definition:

Literature that teaches you about something that is real or how to do something.

Directions:

Choose a book related to the state you would like to do for your state report. In May, we will be doing a Heritage Studies report on a state of your choice. Your book could be about the state in general or about a topic related to the state. Please bring your book to school for approval. Books must be at least 25 pages. Complete the tri-fold, report page that your teacher has provided for you. Make sure you decorate and color it!

Suggested Related Topics:

A particular to a state:

State or national park – Yellowstone in Montana

Historical significance – Gettysburg in Pennsylvania

Entertainment – Disney World in Florida

An industry related to the state – car industry in Michigan; movie capital of the world in Hollywood

A natural resource unique to the state – silver in Nevada; oil in Alaska

