

Week 13 Vocabulary Definitions

words from Seashell Poems & The Mother Who Lost Her Daughter

dank—unpleasantly moist or wet dismal—very gloomy and depressing mortal--human

preserve—to keep or save shriek—to cry out in a high pitched voice swineherd—a person who attends swine (pigs) befriend—to make friends with languid—weak

retired—finished with work

stranded—driven ashore and left there

Week 13 Vocabulary Definitions

words from Seashell Poems & The Mother Who Lost Her Daughter

dank—unpleasantly moist or wet

dismal—very gloomy and depressing

mortal--human

preserve—to keep or save

shriek—to cry out in a high pitched voice

swineherd—a person who attends swine (pigs)

befriend—to make friends with

languid—weak

retired—finished with work

stranded—driven ashore and left there