

Week 19 Vocabulary

Words from Older Brother, Younger Brother

horde—a large number

eave—the edge of a roof

beckon—to make a sign to someone, asking the person to come magnificent—large and beautiful

harmony—agreement

incense—a sweet smelling substance

eke—made with great difficulty

mourn—to be very sad and grieve for someone who has died spiteful—hateful and cruel scowl—frown

Week 19 Vocabulary

Words from Older Brother, Younger Brother

horde—a large number

eave—the edge of a roof

beckon—to make a sign to someone, asking the person to come

magnificent—large and beautiful

harmony—agreement

incense—a sweet smelling substance

eke—made with great difficulty

mourn—to be very sad and grieve for someone who has died

spiteful—hateful and cruel

scowl—frown Snowbelt—a region that usually receives a lot of snow in the winter