

Week 27 Vocabulary

John 3:16 – A True Story L. 110

recess—indentation

persistence—to keep on doing something in spite of obstacles.

ordinary—routine or usual

eager—very interested in doing something; enthusiastic

crest—the top of something such as a wave or a hill.

wilderness—an area of wild land where no people live.

province—a region of a country.

peasant—a poor person who runs a small farm.

lama—a type of asian priest or monk.

gesture—using your head or hands in order to communicate a feeling or an idea.

Week 27 Vocabulary

John 3:16 – A True Story L. 110

recess—indentation

persistence—to keep on doing something in spite of obstacles.

ordinary—routine or usual

eager—very interested in doing something; enthusiastic

crest—the top of something such as a wave or a hill.

wilderness—an area of wild land where no people live.

province—a region of a country.

peasant—a poor person who runs a small farm.

lama—a type of asian priest or monk.

gesture—using your head or hands in order to communicate a feeling or an idea.