

Week 29 Vocabulary

Words from John Wesley: A Fiery Brand

commentary—report/comment

vast—extremely large

idle—lazy/inactive

fanatic—person who believes in or loves something so much that he does foolish things.

commotion—noise/disturbance

zeal—enthusiasm and eagerness

convert—a person who has changed his or her religion.

transform—to change

heretic—someone whose views are different from those of a particular religion endured—braved/suffered through

Week 29 Vocabulary

Words from John Wesley: A Fiery Brand

commentary—report/comment

vast—extremely large

idle—lazy/inactive

fanatic—person who believes in or loves something so much that he does foolish things.

commotion—noise/disturbance

zeal—enthusiasm and eagerness

convert—a person who has changed his or her religion.

transform—to change

heretic—someone whose views are different from those of a particular religion

endured—braved/suffered through